Managing Director: Mr. Albert Fuchs

2. Purpose and legal basis of data processing

We process your data for the purpose of fulfilling the contract, for the purpose of fulfilling pre- and post-contractual obligations, for the communication regarding our products and services and for internal analysis.

Your data are being processed according to the following legal bases:

- Art. 6 Section 1 (a) GDPR: Data processing is based on consent
- Art. 6 Section 1 (b) GDPR: Data processing is based on a contract
- Art. 6 Section 1 (c) GDPR: Data processing is based on fulfilment of a legal obligation
- Art. 6 Section 1 (f) GDPR: Data processing is necessary to safeguard the legitimate interests of the Data Controller.

3. Categories of personal data being processed

We process the following categories of your personal data:

- Company data, such as name, address, phone number, fax number, e-mail address, web address
- Contact details of contact persons, such as title, name, function, phone number, e-mail address
- Information needed to process the payment transaction (e.g. bank details)

4. Recipients and categories of recipients of personal data

Your personal data are being forwarded within our group of companies (ABITRON Germany GmbH, ABITRON Austria GmbH, ABITRON Control Systems GmbH, ABI Holding GmbH und HYDRONIC Handelsges. m. b. H.) to the divisions which need these data in order to fulfil their contractual and legal obligations and/or to safeguard our legitimate interests.

Enquiries from potential customers which regard other sales regions are being forwarded to our responsible sales partners due to contractual liabilities.

In case of legal disputes and default of payment your data may be forwarded to lawyers, collection agencies etc. for enforcement of our claims.

IT service providers only get access to data which are necessary in order to carry out their contractual activities. In individual cases this may result in getting insight into your personal data.

Bank details are being forwarded to our main banking institutions in order to facilitate the payment transactions.

Furthermore, authorities, public bodies and institutions (e.g. tax authorities) will receive all data we are obliged to submit.

5. Transfer of personal data to third parties

It is not intended to forward your personal data to a third country or an international organisation.

6. Storage time and criteria for the determination of the storage time

The storage and documentation periods are determined by the respective legal provisions. An exception will be made if the participant has given his consent to process his data for marketing purposes or for example to receive e-mail newsletters. In this case the data will be deleted upon revocation.

Data which relate to legal disputes will be stored until the procedure has been concluded and the objection period has expired.

7. Rights of the data subject

As a data subject you have the rights of information, correction, deletion, limitation, data transfer, withdrawal and objection. If you believe the processing of your data contravenes the data protection law or your legal data entitlements in any other way, you can lodge a complaint with the supervising authority.

8. Withdrawal of consent

If you have consented to the processing of your personal data through a respective declaration, you may withdraw your consent at any time. The legality of processing your personal data before revocation remains unaffected.
